

Badminton Canada at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games

TORONTO (June 16, 2021) – Badminton Canada and the Canadian Olympic Committee have announced Team Canada’s badminton contingent nominated to compete at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.

A historic eight athletes have qualified for Team Canada based on their performances throughout the Olympic qualification period that officially ended June 15, 2021. With an athlete qualified in each event, Canada will be one of nine countries competing in all five.

Badminton will take place July 24 to August 2 (Day 1 to 10) at the Musashino Forest Sports Plaza.

The athletes and coaches nominated are:

1. Rachel Honderich (Toronto, Ont.) – Women’s Doubles
2. Jason Ho-Shue (Markham, Ont.) – Men’s Doubles
3. Joshua Hurlburt-Yu (Scarborough, Ont.) – Mixed Doubles
4. Michelle Li (Markham, Ont.) – Women’s Singles
5. Kristen Tsai (Burnaby, B.C.) – Women’s Doubles
6. Josephine Wu (Edmonton, Alta.) – Mixed Doubles
7. Nyl Yakura (Pickering, Ont.) – Men’s Doubles
8. Brian Yang (Richmond Hill, Ont.) – Men’s Singles
1. Michael Butler (Saint John, N.B.) – Olympic Team Head Coach
2. Jennifer Lee (Markham, Ont.) – Olympic Team Assistant Coach

The full original Badminton Canada News Release can be found here. It has also been posted on our BON website and will go out on our SM channels today.